

CONNECTICUT SUN POST-GAME

Connecticut Sun vs. Seattle Storm

June 10, 2016

Mohegan Sun Arena

Final Score: Connecticut 77, Seattle 76

- Morgan Tuck scored a career-high 20 points. She also had career highs for made field goals (8), made threes (3), field goal attempts (10) and three-point attempts (3).
- Alyssa Thomas had a season-high nine rebounds and seven made free throws while finishing with 15 points, her fifth double-figure scoring game of the season and second in a row. She has 35 points in the last two games.
- Connecticut avoided tying the longest losing streak (7 games) in franchise history, snapping a six-game stretch with the win.
- Connecticut made 19 of 24 free throws. The made free throws tied a season-high (Washington, May 21st).
- Jasmine Thomas had six rebounds, the most since she tied a career-high with nine against the Mystics (5/21). It was her fifth game with at least five rebounds this season. Thomas had a single-season career high 127 rebounds last year.
- Camille Little had a three for the fifth straight game and sixth time this season.
- Kelsey Bone had 10 points, the fifth double-figure scoring game of the season for the Sun center.