

POSTGAME NOTES

SEATTLE STORM vs. DALLAS WINGS

KEYARENA | JUNE 30, 2016

TEAM	SCORE	RECORD	HIGH POINTS	HIGH REBOUNDS	HIGH ASSISTS
Storm	78	6-10	Loyd, 24	Langhorne, 9	Stewart, 6
Wings	83	8-9	Powers, 19	Paris, 12	Christmas, 5

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Seattle marked a season-high 7 blocked shots, 4 of which came from rookie Breanna Stewart for the third time in her career.
- Seattle outscored Dallas 36-20 in the paint, the fourth time this season Seattle has outscored their opponent in the paint.
- Wings rookie Aerial Powers hit double figures with 19 points, her second highest output on the season. The last time she scored double digits was on 6/16/16 against Seattle in Arlington, with 13.

KEY STAT OF THE GAME

- In tonight's outing, neither Seattle or Dallas had larger than a 7-point lead. There were 15 lead changes and 15 ties throughout the 40 minutes of play.

STORM HIGHLIGHTS

- Four of Seattle's five starters finished in the double digits on the night: Clark (10), Langhorne (10), Stewart (17) and Loyd (24).
- Jewell Loyd posted 24 points for the Storm, the seventh time this season marking 20+ points.
- The Storm had its best night this season from the foul line shooting 93.8 percent, going 15-of-16.
- Seattle outscored Dallas 36-20 in the paint, the fourth time this season Seattle has outscored their opponent in the paint.
- Seattle marked a season-high 7 blocked shots, 4 of which came from rookie Breanna Stewart for the third time in her career.
- Recent acquisitions for Seattle, Krystal Thomas and Noelle Quinn, made their scoring debuts as the duo marked 6 points (Thomas, 2; Quinn, 4).
- Sue Bird tallied 3 3-point field goals, the seventh time this season marking 3+ makes from the arc this season.

WINGS HIGHLIGHTS

- The Wings are now 1-1 on the west coast this season.
- Rookie Aerial Powers hit double figures with 19 points, her second highest output on the season. The last time she scored double digits was on 6/16/16 against Seattle in Arlington, with 13.
- This is the fourth game of the season Aerial Powers has led the team in points. The other three games where she led were, vs. Atlanta on 5/27, at Minnesota and on 6/4 and Washington on 6/8.
- The Wings shot over 85 percent behind the free throw line going 18-of-21.
- Courtney Paris recorded her fifth double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 boards. The last time Paris registered a double-double was on 6/16/16 against the Storm with 13 points and 10 boards.
- The Wings shot 50 percent from the 3-point arc tonight, the second highest percentage this season and are 1-1 when shooting that percentage.

NEXT GAME: Seattle hits the road for three games away from the Pacific Northwest, starting Tuesday, July 5 in Atlanta. Tipoff vs. the Dream is at 7 p.m. EDT.