Minnesota Lynx vs. Seattle Storm

Seattle Storm Head Coach Jenny Boucek

On the overall performance of her team...

"This is a great team. I mean [Minnesota] has been the best team in our league for five years. You have no margin for error when you play them. You have to do everything right and can't relax for a second or you're going to pay. I think we were relaxed. I think we lost our poise a little bit."

On Sue Bird and Breanna Stewart heading to the Olympics...

"That's very exciting for a lot of reasons, but it's especially special because it'll be Sue's last, fourth, which is incredible and [Stewart's] first at such a young age and for them to do that together is very exciting. We couldn't have two better people representing our organization than Sue Bird and Breanna Stewart. They are top notch players and competitors and people."

Seattle Storm Guard Sue Bird

On the overall performance of the Storm tonight...

"Minnesota is really good. They're really good. You can't make mistakes on your side of things because they just make you pay. For us, we feel like we played a really solid game, but then we made just enough mistakes, gave them enough second-chance points and that kind of a thing and couldn't recover. Congrats to them."

On the timing of the Olympic break...

"I think everyone is excited for a break. You know, it's been a tough season. It's coming at a good time."
