

Atlanta Dream vs. Seattle Storm Postgame Quotes

September 4, 2016 – 6:00 p.m. at Philips Arena – Atlanta

Seattle Storm Jenny Boucek Head Coach

On tonight's game...

"We were just really trying to focus on every situation, every second, and learn from everything [that] we go through. We learned a lot from the Chicago game, so we tried to apply that tonight."

Mindset for the remainder of the season...

"Just one day at a time, one play at a time. Our focus is to play our best basketball by the time the season ends, whenever that is."

Sue Bird

Bouncing back from Chicago loss...

"We didn't really get too down with the Chicago loss. We knew we had an opportunity. But, for the most part this season, with every game we've either won or lost, we've tried to move on and learn from it. That's what happened tonight."

Mindset moving forward...

"Just because you win or lose the night before doesn't mean anything. We're going to playing against a team in New York that is very talented. They're third for a reason. We're going to have our hands full."

Breanna Stewart

On third quarter push...

"We knew that a lot of teams this season have made strong third quarter pitches against us and we wanted to make sure we did it against someone else."

On the Dream's fourth quarter run...

"We knew they were going to make a push at some point because we do it to other teams. Just continuing to keep our composure is the biggest thing especially when you're on the road."
